INTRODUCTION

1. The Calendar included in the present volume is the Revised Scottish Calendar, approved by the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church in 1991 and subsequently amended by Resolution of the General Synod. The Commemorations have been classified into six groups which indicate not importance but precedence. Where two Commemorations fall on the same day, that which has the lower number takes precedence. In the accompanying Lectionary category numbers are indicated in square brackets.

Using the Calendar explains in general terms the way in which the Commemorations have been classified. Commemorations in categories 1 - 4 are intended to be observed by the whole Church. Those in category 5 are optional, but in most cases have readings provided. Those in category 6 are optional and have no specific lectionary provision.

2. Readings for Sundays and Principal Holy Days are taken from the Revised Common Lectionary. This offers a three-year cycle of readings for use at the principal service of the day on Sundays and certain Holy Days. It is based on the table of readings produced by the Roman Catholic Church in 1969, which in turn was developed by the Consultation on Common Texts and published in 1984 as the Common Lectionary, which was included in the Scottish Liturgy (Eucharist) 1989. Reflection on the 1984 text led to the current revision, the Revised Common Lectionary, undertaken by members of the English Language Liturgical Consultation (ELLC), which included ecumenical associations of churches from Australia, Canada, Great Britain, New Zealand, Southern Africa and the USA.

The Synoptic Gospels are read semi-continuously, Matthew in Year A, Mark in Year B, Luke in Year C, with passages from the Fourth Gospel occurring at significant points during the three-year cycle. The other New Testament writings are also arranged to be read semi-continuously over the three years. Old Testament passages have been selected for every Sunday and many holy days, and a psalm is provided as a congregational response to the reading of the Old Testament.

If Old Testament passages were to be selected only to reflect the themes of readings from the New Testament at the same service, there would be little opportunity of listening to the Old Testament in its own right. The Revised Common Lectionary has attempted to address this problem by arranging that the Old Testament readings from Advent Sunday through to Pentecost continue to be linked with the Gospel. On the Sundays after Pentecost (except on Trinity Sunday) two Old Testament readings are provided, each with its accompanying psalm. The first set offers semi-continuous reading of the Old Testament texts, the second set offers readings which relate to the theme of the Gospel readings.

It is important to make a deliberate choice between 'semi-continuous' and 'thematic' readings of the Old Testament, and to stay with whichever set of readings reflect that choice, through to the Last Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 34).

The Scripture references given in the Revised Common Lectionary follow those of the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Those who use other versions of the Scriptures should check these against NRSV, especially where verse numbers are concerned. All references to Psalms are based on the Canadian Psalter adopted for use in the Scottish Episcopal Church.

- 3 Readings at the Eucharist on weekdays are taken from the ecumenical Daily Eucharist Lectionary, which contains a two-year cycle, Year 1 beginning on Advent Sunday in even years; and Year 2 beginning on Advent Sunday in odd years. Each set includes two readings, one of which is a passage from a Gospel, and a psalm. Readings are listed across the page, those for Year 2 (where applicable) being below those for Year 1.

- 4 Readings for use at Morning and Evening Prayer (Daily Prayer) are also included. Those for Sundays are taken from the Church of England provision for a second Sunday Service. Those for weekdays are taken, with permission, from the Canadian Book of Alternative Services. The readings are arranged in a two-year cycle, Year 1 beginning on Advent Sunday 2006, 2008 etc; and Year 2 beginning on Advent Sunday 2007, 2009 etc. As with the readings at the Daily Eucharist, they are listed across the page, those for Year 2 being below those for Year 1.

For each day there is a passage from the Old Testament or from the Apocrypha, from a New Testament writing, and from a Gospel. These may be distributed between Morning and Evening Prayer according to choice. It is open to those who may wish it to use only two readings each day, one at Morning Prayer and one at Evening Prayer. When a reading is unavoidably long, it should be the only reading. If more than one Old Testament reading is needed for any one day it should be taken from the other year.

For most Holy Days there are two readings for morning and two for evening. For some Holy Days (particularly for Feasts of the Lord), special readings are provided for use on the previous evening. Those who use the order of Morning and Evening Prayer in the Scottish Prayer Book of 1929 may use the readings provided there. They are not suitable for use with Daily Prayer.

- 5 The Psalms. In the Revised Common Lectionary and the Daily Eucharistic Lectionary it is often the case that only selected verses of a psalm are listed. This does not preclude the use of fewer verses or of more verses, or of the complete psalm, if desired.

Daily Prayer includes its own tables of psalms. These are not reproduced here, though for Sundays alternative psalms are suggested, for those who may feel that the choice offered in Daily Prayer for Sundays within any one season is too limited.

Those who use the order of Morning and Evening Prayer in the Scottish Prayer Book of 1929 will follow its provisions for reciting the psalms, noting that in addition to the thirty-day cycle the Prayer Book offers a table of psalms which may be used on Sundays and some Holy Days.

- 6 Moveable dates (Advent, Ash Wednesday, Easter, Ascension, Pentecost) for the years from 2024 to 2034 are listed on the following pages.
- 7 A Guide to the use of this Calendar and Lectionary during a specific calendar year accompanies this publication as a separate paper, published annually and available from the General Synod Office of the Scottish Episcopal Church, 21 Grosvenor Crescent, Edinburgh, EH12 5EE

The Calendar

The Calendar

Using the Calendar

Each Holy and Saint's Day listed in the Calendar has been assigned a number which indicates its category.

It is intended that feasts in categories 1-4 (below) should be kept by the whole Church. Days in categories 5 and 6 may be kept according to diocesan or local discretion. Commemorations not included in this Calendar may be observed with the approval of the Bishop.

When two celebrations fall on the same day, the following table indicates which takes precedence.

- 1 Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday;
 Easter Day (and the weekdays following);
 Pentecost;
 Ash Wednesday; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday in Holy Week; Ascension Day;
 Christmas Day ; Epiphany;
 Sundays of Advent, Lent and Easter.

- 2 Feasts of The Lord (Naming, Presentation, Annunciation, Transfiguration);
 Trinity Sunday; All Saints' Day;
 Dedication and Patronal Festivals;
 Eves of Christmas and Pentecost;
 First Sunday after Christmas;
 First Sunday after Epiphany (the Baptism of the Lord).

- 3 Sundays after Christmas (except Christmas 1);
Sundays after Epiphany (except Epiphany 1);
Sundays after Pentecost (except Pentecost 1).
- 4 Feasts of the Apostles and Evangelists;
Saint Mary the Virgin; the Visit to Elizabeth;
Joseph; John the Baptist (Birth, Beheading);
Mary Magdalene; Michael and All Angels;
James of Jerusalem;
Stephen; the Holy Innocents;
Kentigern; Patrick; Columba; Ninian; Margaret of Scotland;
Weekdays in Lent.
- 5 All Souls' Day; Holy Cross Day;
Conception and Birth of Mary, Mother of the Lord;
Thanksgiving for the Institution of the Holy Communion (Corpus Christi);
Thanksgiving for Harvest.
- 6 Other commemorations.

Notes:

- (i) Epiphany may be kept on the Sunday following 1 January, and the Ascension on the Seventh Sunday of Easter.
- (ii) Feasts in Category 2, falling on a weekday, may be kept on the nearest Sunday, except Sundays in Categories 1 and 2.
- (iii) Feasts in Category 4, falling on a day of higher category, should be transferred (in chronological order) to the next available weekday.
- (iv) Where feasts in Category 4 fall on a Sunday (other than a Sunday in Categories 1 and 2), they may, if local circumstances require, be kept on that day. Other Feasts of Category 4, falling on a Weekday of Lent, are kept on their appointed day.
- (v) The weekdays of Advent and Easter may be given special weighting.
- (vi) When days in Category 6 coincide with a day of higher category, they should be omitted that year.
- (vii) The Collect and readings for Thanksgiving for the Institution of Holy Communion (Corpus Christi), observed on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, may be used whenever the Eucharist is celebrated with this intention.
- (viii) Thanksgiving for the Harvest may take place on any appropriate Sunday.
- (ix) In addition to the Common Readings for Saints' Days, propers and readings from Exciting Holiness (Norwich: Canterbury Press, 2007) may be used.
